

Sickle Cell Disease Fertility Preservation Grant

For individuals living with sickle cell disease (SCD), transplant is the only established curative treatment. As part of the transplant process, SCD warriors undergo a conditioning regimen that can impact fertility. Insurance providers often do not cover costs related to fertility preservation and there is extremely limited funding available to individuals with sickle cell disease.

With funding generously provided by the Be The Match Foundation®, the National Marrow Donor Program® (NMDP)/Be The Match® and their partner Sickle Cell Reproductive Health Education Directive (SCRED) can provide financial help for SCD warriors who want the opportunity to build their own families post-transplant.

Eligibility requirements

- Diagnosis of sickle cell disease
- Warrior is pre-transplant and has a formal search through the NMDP/Be The Match
- Transplant team has identified a donor or cord for collection
- Transplant will be facilitated by NMDP/Be The Match (related or unrelated)
- Household monthly net (take-home) income does not exceed 350% of the federal poverty line
- Transplant center team submits application affirming patient's eligibility and need
- Fertility clinic consultation complete
